Fort Lauderdale, Fla. – Bokampers Sports Bar & Grill, the “Best Game in Town,” is opening an 18,000-square-foot waterfront location at 3115 NE 32 Avenue in Fort Lauderdale (just north of the Oakland Park Blvd. bridge) in late November. Diners can tie up their boats, hop off the Water Taxi, or drive on over to watch every sport, every game and every event on more than 150 HDTVs and feast on ribs, sushi, fresh oysters, burgers and the finest craft brews. With seating for 750, the mega sports bar will offer a stadium feel with family room comfort.

“Bokampers is more than a restaurant, it’s an experience,” says Kim Bokamper, founder of Bokampers Sports Bar & Grill. “We are the perfect trifecta: a sports bar, a sushi bar and a raw bar. Our guests will enjoy an unforgettable time with all the game watching necessities while overlooking the Intracoastal Waterway. Whether it’s to watch the Super Bowl, celebrate a birthday, eat brunch, or meet for happy hour, we have something for everyone.”

On game night and every night, Bokampers will be Fort Lauderdale’s hot spot with its top-rated American craft beers, diverse menu and state-of-the-art audio visual system. There are four sound zones and a private party room for special occasions. 350 feet of dock space is available for guests arriving by boat. The outdoor deck offers seating for 350.

While the menu includes many of Bokamper's popular classics such as its five signature burgers and award-winning smokehouse ribs, the restaurant will also feature a sushi bar and raw bar – a first among the brand's restaurants. Sushi aficionados can have their pick with nearly 30 rolls (hand rolls, house rolls) to choose from, along with sashimi. Beer enthusiasts will enjoy more than 25 bottle brands to choose from and 20 different drafts. On Sundays from 9:30 a.m. to noon, Bokampers will serve up delectable brunch offerings ranging from Benedicts to BLTs.

Hours of operation are Monday through Saturday 11:30 a.m. to 2 a.m. and Sunday 9:30 a.m. to 2 a.m. The Bokampers Fort Lauderdale number is 954-900-5584. There are more than 350 parking spaces, and valet service is offered daily.
